“ Dear Pam, Debbie, Cathy and Jane,
So so sorry for you loss! She was always so sweet and had a good sense of humor. I have informed my mother of her passing. She said, "Oh dear!" I know she felt badly, but she has Alzheimer"s and dementia, and doesn't say too much. Mostly just, "I'm fine". However she did understand Betty died. My deepest condolences!!
I heard Pam is in the hospital with Corvid and I pray for her each night. Sure hope she recovers!!
Take care!

“ Dear Debbie, Cathy and Jane, This is a rough one, not easy to deal with. I am so very sorry for your losses. At times like this I visit fond memories of my Michigan family. We had the best time visiting every summer, I loved having so many cousins. I loved the adventures on the farm and at the lake. In hindsight, I even loved the more difficult times, the hard work and the many lessons I learned. But what I remember cherishing most is the infectious laugh/giggle that seemed to be an inherited trait through the generations. As I get older, my memory is more limited, I never know where my keys, phone or glasses are. I have trouble recalling names of people I see everyday. But I won't ever forget the names of all my aunts and all my cousins. My heart is with you today and forever, because I truly believe we will all be together again. My live to each one of you.
