“ I am so sorry Mom that you and the majority of your Family had to endure the separation that we did for the past few years. It doesn't seem fair. But our human eyes can only see what is directly in front of us. God can see the whole picture. Someday we will understand the reason behind it. I have relinquish my right to get even. Romans 12:19 says, do not take revenge my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: It is mine to avenge, I will repay, says the Lord. I am so Thankful that Faith and I got to talk to you one last time before you went to be with Jesus in Heaven. It was awesome to hear your voice and to hear you say "You love Me." I will be forever grateful that you and Dad instilled in my a love for Christ. I know this is not Good Bye. It is see you later. We will be reunited again one day in Heaven for all Eternity. Thanks for being my Mom

“ One of my favorite memories with you grandma, was hearing you tell the story of how part of our family came over from Sweden, i remember like it was yesterday, sitting in your living room on the couch, and you said you had probably told me this story many times as a child, but i never grew tired of hearing it. I also remember everytime us kids would spend the night with you and grandpa, you always made sure there was smurf berry crunch breakfast! Ive missed you for many years, and will continue to miss you, may you rest peacefully in the warmth surrounded by light and love. I love you!

“ Mom I wish I could be there with you today. Rick has not been well so we have been staying in because of Covid. I know you know we love you so very much. It is in your heart. What we have that God gave us can't be taken away. I remember you telling me that. I am thankful to God that he has you now in his arms. No more chains that bind you to this earth and no more pain. I love you.

“ I loved her crocheted hats, scarves and blankets. She and my dad are the ones who got Keith and I interested in bird watching. She would teach the little children at church sunday school lessons. One day there were all girls. She said let's pray for a boy to join us next week. So they prayed and a boy came to class the next week. We had a lot of fun in vacation bible school, Christmas plays, and potlucks. She sewed so many cute dresses for us. At one of our homes she grew a lot of herbs for our food. Once we all got in the car, ended up on a windy road in the fog and she had to open the car door to see where we were going. She had to pull over for a bit when we made it down the hill. She was a good bowler and her and dad loved to square dance. During their retirement years they hung out at a campground enjoying the birds and camp fires. It is such a comfort to me, knowing she loves her savior Jesus and is in paradise. I will see you and my dad again someday. I love you MOM, I thank God for you and miss you so much.
