“ When we were children John was the storybook big brother. He was the one who ran along beside me helping me learn to ride a bike. He was the one who taught me how to throw a ball and swing a bat, and gave me twenty strikes before I struck out. Very few people knew what a good voice he had and could harmonize like the Everly Brothers.

No matter what life threw at him, he found a way to get through it with his strong faith in God. I cherish the good memories, and I am comforted to know that now he can have a long-deserved peaceful rest in God's care.

“ My memories of my big brother are so many. He had the most beautiful soul and he will be missed by myself and my sister, Nita Brunett. He is now in the arms of his savior who was very close to him and now has given him peace.
