“ Adam has been a part of all 4 of my daughters lives for as long as I can remember. When Katrina had her accident he called my husband and me to notify us. We were on site before rescue arrived. He had taken his shirt off to wipe the blood from her head and face and stayed with her until we arrived. He was a kind and caring young man and a loyal and fierce friend. There is a hole in all of our hearts now but we are grateful for having had him in our lives
