“ To Veronica and all your family, I'm truly sorry for your loss. When I think of your mother, I remember her love and support for her family and her pride in each and every one of them. I cherish the times when she extended that same love and support to me. As just one example, her sweet and unfailingly polite presence, made it possible for me to move to the East Coast when I did. Even my own mother had to accept Mrs. Hubbard's quiet certainty that it was the right thing to do.
