“ I was so sad when I picked up Sunday's paper and saw that Allen had passed away. Even though I have not had contact with Allen for a long time I remember his passion for creating things and being unique. The other thing I remember was his shy smile that was special because he didn't often want you to see it. I know that Allen had a lot of family members that love him. I hope that you may all find some comfort in knowing that Allen is in a beautiful place and at peace.
