“ I guess we never really know the feeling of loss and the hole in your heart until the day you face losing someone you love more then words can express. " I LOVE YOU", I miss you, and my life will never be the same without having you near,"

“ Just wanted to pass along my sincere condolences on the death of Anita. I knew her from her time as a dedicated member of the Adrian Woman's Club. Enjoyed having lunch with her and the other ladies once a month for several years. Those were special times. With deepest sympathy, “ Aunt Anita was an angel long before she became a real angel. She had a heart for all people and showed her love and kindness to all. She modeled goodness to a T. She will be missed. I am so glad God blessed me by having her be part of my life.
