“ My heart breaks for you in your loss. Barb was my Mom's best friend and she became my friend. She was a very kind, gentle lady with a determined spirit. I so enjoyed our phone conversations and visits and she had a way of making each person feel special. I marveled at her strength and admired that at 90 she was still getting out every day and meeting friends for lunch at the Senior Center. She loved you girls and spoke often how proud she was of you and how you looked after her (although she may have made it difficult at times with her independent spirit!). She was a special lady and I will miss her here on earth - may she rejoice in heaven with those who went before her.

With love,
Shirley
