“ Dear Leo, Sally, Bud and families,
Please accept our sincere condolences on Barb's passing. She was the sweetest lady I ever knew, having met her many years ago when I worked in Lucile's beauty shop. She kept up with all our family news over the years and never once missed sending me a birthday card in December or our wedding anniversary in July. When her usual card did not come this past July, I realized she must be very ill and unable to keep up.
Please accept our deepest sympathies.

PS

Barb Wild was a special lady. She always had sincere and kind words for everyone. She remembered us yearly with Holiday, Anniversary and Birthday cards for our whole family! What a lovely person! She is now at rest with her Savior, Jesus, but we know she'll be missed by the many people whose lives she touched!
