“ We were chapparones for a band trip with Alexia and Ashlynn. We decided that we wanted to have Old Country Buffet before we left, we were running late but I told Barb that we would be ok. We wouldn't be late. I think I may of scared the poo out of her but we made it back to Blissfield with minutes to spare. Barb was a great person that I was able to meet. RIH Barb.

“ One of my favorite things about my aunt barb was here sense of humor and her ability to not give one damn about what people say or think. This photo is from when she came to visit me and my family in Jersey, we had brunch together that evening. I'll forever miss her and I truly wish I was able to speak to her and see her in person before she passed but I know she's in a much better place now. ☐
