Bonnie was my youngest sister. My younger sister passed a few years earlier. Bonnie was a beautiful child, with blond curls and blue eyes. She did a dance routine at the Grand Opening of the Florida Theater in downtown Fort Lauderdale at age three and later studied Piano and played beautifully. She also created several paintings in oil. I mention these since they were not included in her obituary. She was gifted in many ways, a gem of a sister, and loved by all who passed her way. She visited our family, often, when she flew as a hostess for Delta Airlines. We lived in North Miami Beach. Our oldest son, Chuck, remembers the little gifts she brought from her travels. Ray, my middle son, may have learned some of his building skills when she allowed him to build a three story tree house in her back yard banyan tree of her home in Fort Lauderdale. And her youngest son, Ron, Jr. and my youngest son became best friends in childhood and, sometimes, getting in trouble together. Boys throw rocks.
