

Charles "Bub" Etter

January 23, 1930 - April 16, 2017

ADRIAN – Charles “Bub” Theodore Etter, 87, passed away Sunday, April 16, 2017, at his beloved farm. He was born January 23, 1930 in Adrian, MI, the son of the late Ivan and Emma (Cope) Etter. He married Myrna Ann Hamden on March 28, 1949 in Angola, IN, and she survives.

Charlie was employed with Bohn Aluminum for over 40 years, but his lifelong passion was his farm. He owned and operated Etter’s Chick Haven housing over 40,000 chickens along with steers and pigs. Charlie dearly loved his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. He enjoyed bowling, square dancing, bingo, playing cards, Las Vegas, 4-H, serving as a deacon at Palmyra Presbyterian Church, his commitment to his community and his famous BBQ chicken legs! His humor and laughter will be missed, along with his fellowship with all that entered his life. Everyone knew it would be 3 days to start farming when he would get stuck in the spring with his tractor.

Surviving Charles in addition to his wife, Myrna of 68 years, are five children: Nancy (Chris) Pellowe of Adrian, Brenda Etter of Oklahoma, Terry (Linda) Etter of Adrian, Kathy (Neal) Staup of Onsted, and Sally (Troy) Bevier of Tecumseh; one sister, Dorothy Parker of Adrian; 12 grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents, Ivan and Emma Etter; brothers, Harvey and Dale Etter; father and mother-in-law, Harvey and Linnie Hamden and two granddaughters.

Funeral services will take place at 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, April 19, 2017, at
