“ Living so far away, I didn't know Chuck half as well as I'd have liked, but the little time we spent together was full of laughter. This past summer I got to spend a morning with him and he recounted the story of his family and his farm. I'm grateful for the companionship he gave my Mimi, and the kindness he showed me when we were together. I'll miss you Chuck, and I'll have a morning beer on the beach in your memory.

“ I remember so many Friday nights spent at Chuck and Marge’s home with our parents playing cards. Chuck was always so sweet and kind and always gave me a hug whenever I saw him throughout the years. He was the first person who ever got me on a three wheeler! Just a kind and loving soul with a beautiful voice. Hugs to Debbie, Keith, Jolene and Kevin.
