“ Donna and family. So sorry for your loss. One of my fun memories is when you and Chuck were visiting your grandchildren in OKC and we met y'all and we all had lunch someplace in OKC--long time ago. We hadn't really been around each other through the years (even though we were cousins) yet as we sat and talked it felt like we had been best friends for years. I said then, "I wish you were my next door neighbors," and I always wished it could have been. Loved you both so much and still do. Prayers for comfort and joy and love. Can't you just see the hugs going on in heaven? I'm sure my Carl was there, possibly talking about the same memory I just mentioned.

*Love you!
