“ He taught me how to make hamburger patties and ride my first moped...he taught me unconditional love and that you can overcome anything you put your mind to. Charlie never met an enemy but rather was a friend to everyone that crossed his path. He reveled in the simple things and loved being surrounded by people... even the little ladies at Tecumseh Place that thought his room was the place for their afternoon chats(after he tried to scare them away! Lol) so many fond memories. He will live in my heart forever! Until we meet again...take care of my grandparents... like you always did here! Love you Potter!
