“ My condolences to the families who loved him. I can still see him as a little skinny bespectacled kid at church with the Yerricks. He was beloved by many. What more could any one ask in this crazy world. Patricia Grover

“ I remember the time that we meet I remember it like yesterday. We hung out all day. We would take the cushions off the couch and jump from one to another. I know we only got to meet a couple times but knowing you back then you were an amazing person to be around you always were smiling even when you got that bloody nose out of no where. I remember when you were doing me all your bunnies that you had and I wished that I had one. You will be greatly missed by many.

“ Well sheesh. I don't really know where to start. The night you walked home in the middle of the night and scared the bejeezus out of me. The fact that you always asked for chicken for dinner at my house. The many times you spent talking the boys through their problems and making sure they were ok. Little league world series with the boys. Skate parks... getting hugs from you even after I had moved to Nebraska and came home to visit. Hearing momma cat I'm home. What's for dinner?"lol

Your mom coming to chat in the driveway while looking for you and the boys while you were out riding...or skating together or terrorizing the neighborhood. You will be missed and forever made an impact on me and all of the boys. You were a fixture in my house for the better part of 10 years. Love ya kid... my heart aches but you are at peace.
