“ My uncle Dan, I remember we were out for breakfast with everyone and he kept stealing parts of my food when I wasn't looking 😞..he always tortured me but I loved him to death. I'll always love him always forever.

“ Dan was such a good neighbor. Always there to lend hand, and i don't think there was any thing he could not fix. The floats he had in parades he built himself and there were many. You will be missed Dan.
