“ Two years ago today you left us, not a day goes by that i dont miss you more than the last. You were the greatest influence of my life and i will never be okay without you. but you raised me to be strong, kind and intelligent, so it is in your honor that i go on and raise my kids the way you taught me. You were the best father, teacher and friend that i could have ever hoped for and i am truly blessed to have had you for a father.i love you and miss you more than i could ever express. the boys talk about you all the time. i thank God for the memories they have of you. its ironic how i need you to help me deal with losing you. sending you all my love on this, and every day.

“ We were so saddened to read of David's departure. We fondly remember him as a generous and caring neighbor to us while we lived in Fairfield. He shared his barn with our church for a service, he allowed our small son to ride on his little donkey. He shared his ferrets and other little animals with us. He loved his children and was so proud of them! He was hospitable, friendly and kind. Our sympathy to all of his family.
