“ Hi Mrs. Deemer:

I am so very sorry to hear about your son so unexpectedly. Carolyn, Angela and I both would like to send our sincere thoughts of you recently and the tragedy you have been through.

I know that Carolyn mentioned that you are looking for a handyman. I tried to get Tom but he wasn't interested in being committed. I did find a name of a gentlemen from a good source at "Crowder Brothers". The salesman, Brian, recommended him highly and said he was very prompt and trustworthy. I got he name and it is "Dan Nixon". His Cell Phone is 838-8564 and there is another number (probably his residence) 646-3937. Just let him know that you need someone occasionally and hopefully there can be something worked out. I have no idea what he charges but Crowder Brothers said he would be fair.

Hope this helps and have a wonderful "Thanksgiving".

“ I knew and had worked closely with David for at least 12 years, during which I received unflagging support and helpfulness from him, along with a healthy dose of humor and philosopy. Along with other members of Amcor who worked with him, I shall miss him tremendously, but our loss is nothing compared to his family, to whom my deeply sympathetic feelings go out at this time. My most earnest wish is that you may all find some small grain of comfort in knowing how much David was loved and appreciated by those beyond the immediate family circle. May his memory be honored as he deserves. In appreciation, Geoffrey Sladen##imported-begin##Geoffrey Sladen##imported-end##

“ Susan, Please accept my condolences. I am very saddened to hear this news. I first met Dave in 1976 and we were good friends for many years. I enjoyed meeting you and visiting at your home in Atlanta. I hadn't seen Dave in 20 years when out of the blue he stopped by my business about 6 months or so ago. It was good to see him again and we talked about how our lives had changed in those years. Dave was the same man I remembered with his great attitude and positive outlook on life. He will be greatly missed by his old friends down here in Lakeland.##imported-begin##Nolan Calabro##imported-end##

“ Dear Deemer family.

It is with a sense of disbelief and sadness that I write to you at this difficult time. It was a honor to be able to call Dave a friend along with the close work relationship that we had while working together on and off over the last fifteen years. He was a consummate professional in all aspects of the word, especially in not forgetting to care first for the people with whom he worked. I'll miss being able to call him with questions or having a lively discussion, like the one we had just a month ago, when we met in Manchester. With my and Nancy's deepest sympathies.
