“ One of the memories I have of David was when he was in Boy Scouts. He was away for a scout fishing adventure. He returned home with a string of fish. Well I had to go fishing. So I used my allowance money to buy a fishing pole, dug some earthworms and asked mom and dad to take us fishing. I remember going to the Rifle river. I can't tell you how many times I cast out the line or how many worms I drowned, but I caught nothing for all my efforts. David came along said I was fishing in the wrong spot. So I reeled in the line and handed him the pole. He told me where the best spot was in the river and as he went to cast out the line, there went the pole. So there I was without a pole, my new pole. Borrowing my sisters bamboo pole I placed a treble hook on the end of the line and began casting out the line and dragging the bottom. I gave one more attempt when suddenly I hooked into something. I got excited, I caught my first fish r so I thought. It wasn't a fish I hooked...it was my fishing pole. I was even more excited. After I dragged it on shore, the line was still in the water. As I reeled in the line, the ole began to quiver. I had a fish, it was a muskie. Thanks David for sparking my interest in fishing.

“ Some of my oldest and fondest memories were "going to East Tawas" and spending; time with David. I loved shagging flies in the back yard, riding bikes to the ball field, going to the city park on Lake Huron/Tawas Bay and flattening pennies on the railroad tracks next to US-23. I enjoyed visiting David in Boston while in college. Years later, we enjoyed being on the East Coast for a common period of time with David, Lena and Christopher in New York City and Kim & I an hour away in New Jersey. I remember David having us keep his car in New Jersey to avoid the expense and hassle of finding parking in NYC. They years all go by too fast but the memories are forever.

Kim & I along with Ryan and Derek send our condolences to the entire family but cherish all the memories.
