“ I remember stopping at the Wielfaert farm with my grandpa and Dave and any of the other boys around the house came running to the truck to see what Mrs. Barrett had sent to trade for fresh Veggies. Her home made bread with a jar of jam were big hits but if I remember right her cinnamon rolls ruled the roost.

I also went to school with Dave and played football with him. Like Tammie said, what I remember most was what a nice fellow he was to all. My condolences to the family.
