This Memorial Day is seems so lopsided to me. Last year you, Dan and I spent the day going from one family member grave to another placing flowers on each one's grave and remembering the place they each had shared in our lives. Today it was only Dan and I and one of those graves was yours. I still am having a hard time realizing that you are gone from this earth, but I am satisfied to know you are with Jesus and Mom. I miss you dearly, I just don't think I will ever get past that part. Memories and tears just all of a sudden come to me during the days and nights.

I'll always love you Dad,

“ APRIL 18, 2025 HAPPY BIRTHDAY AND
HAPPY EASTER

Dad you would have been 93 here on earth today. This is your third year in heaven. Time has gone by so quickly since you left and so much has happened. We have the three new babies in the family and all are doing well.

I put flowers on your and Moms grave for Easter on Good Friday and the people who run the cemetery come running right out to me and told me I would have to take them off Monday or they would remove them themselves. The flowers where very pretty it was a light blue wreath with glittery Easter eggs on it. I attached it to the vast on your graves with wire high up on the vase so it would not be in their way when they mowed but he claimed it was not allowed and would remove them. He also pointed to another grave nearby saying he would be destroying theirs as well because it had a little fence in the vase that he thought was ugly so it had to go. I thought how rude of him to stand over a loved ones grave and say he did not like what was there. I said to him well these flowers that are put on these graves are an expression from the heart of their loved ones to them, not to you. He said, " whatever, I had till Monday to get them removed and he was only allowing them to stay that long because it was Easter." I think that man needs to get the real meaning of Easter in him. Non the lest I went back over Monday and replaced the flowers with different ones. I have since checked and those are still there. They are red and yellow ones and do also look nice.

I just wish you where here for me to hand them to you instead of my having to meet someone else approval. After all they where never met for him. They are for you and Mom. Thankfully you are in a place you have beauty all around you and best of all your gardener is Jesus. I am making sure I am ready to see you when it is my time. For now I just want you to know I love you and miss you. I am doing the best I can.

Happy Birthday and Happy Easter

HAPPY 75TH ANNIVERSARY

Hi Dad,

I miss you so much. This would have been yours and Mom's 75th Anniversary this year. I am happy to know that you and Mom are together for it all-though selfish of me I would have enjoyed having you both here with us to celebrate. I have memories of your 65th anniversary party all of us kids had for you. I look at the photos of that day and it helps me to remember how happy we all where. I just sent a message up to Mom about how fast our family is growing since you both have left. We are at 58 strong now. I'm sure she will share the message with you. I visited your graves today and there where 13 robins all around your graves with some other kinds as well. Seems life is waking up all around us with the trees starting to bud and flowers poking up out of the ground. Its been in the 50,s and 60,s about the temp you liked to get out in the yard and start grooming it for the spring and summer. My memories can see you out there riding your lawn mower around. Picking up twigs and burning them then getting your roller hooked up to the lawn mower to roll the lawn. Dan and I are doing our best to keep every thing looking nice the way you always kept it.

I also have a memory of you and Mom setting together in front of the window that overlooks the back yard and your precious bird feeder. You where both setting there eating one of the last meals you would eat here on earth together.

It was a nice day on that day too and us kids and grand kids opened the side door and set a table on the back porch so some of us set inside the house and some out side on the porch so we all where able to see you and Mom. we left the door open between the deck and house. That is why you both where setting at the big window that overlooks the back yard and bird feeder. Something that was always a site you both enjoyed with all the different birds and watching the flag wave in the breeze. It was at a family gathering we had which was also the last one we all shared after Mom had come home from the hospital for the last time. That picture has stuck in my mind every since then. I just wish I could have gotten a photo of both of you then but my camera had run out of charge. I thank God for the memories he has allowed me to keep.

Happy 75th Anniversary in Heaven together this year.

I miss you

I love you

You are always with me

“ Valentine's Day February 14,2025

Dad,

This is the day you left us here on earth. The day you found your way to Heaven. I am sure it is a better place than what those of us you left behind are living in and at least I know you are safe there. It has always been said that time heals the heart but I do not believe that. My heart still hurts today, missing you and Mom. I look at both of your chairs sitting right where you left them. I see you and her in them talking to me and enjoying talking about something new that has happened in our lives. I am so thankful for all the memories I have of both of you. I have my heart wrapped around each memory, holding them as tight as I can so I don't lose a single one.

I sent out Christmas cards to your friends again this year. I usually hear back from each one. Last year at Christmas I paid a personal visit to Clair and Peg. Clair was in hospice at the time and time was close for him. Peg was so happy to see me she jumped up and grabbed me, hugging me tight and crying because she was so overjoyed to see me again. Unfortunately I did not get a response back from her this year and I believe she followed Clair on the stairway to Heaven. They were such a sweet couple and up there in years. I believe they missed you and Mom and had to join up with you in Heaven. I hope you are rejoicing with them now.

I have tried to be a good reflection of you and Mom. You both were always so kind to other people. I hope to pass that along to my own kids and grandchildren and great grandchildren. Which by the way the count has increased by five now just in the last year alone. I now have 3 children, 3 of their spouses, David 7 children with 4 spouses, Daniel 4 children with 2 spouses, Lindy 4 children with 2 spouses, that makes 23 grandchildren for me, David has 5 grandchildren, Daniel 2 grandchildren, Lindy, 3 grandchildren. That makes 10 great grandchildren for me. Two new spouses were added in 2024 and 3 new babies are being added so far this year one was born Jan and another due in March and another due in April. So you have a lot of family that has arrived since you and Mom left us. I know Mom got to hold one of her great great grands just before she left for Heaven. It would be such a great reunion if we can get them all to Heaven one sweet day. That will be the first time you and Mom will get to meet them all. I pray for that everyday. I know God is faithful to us all and that can be possible if they will do their part. I am doing all I can to show them the way. I hope we all can be together there in Heaven some sweet day.

Till then I will always remember you and Mom and keep your memories alive here. I hope to be a reflection of God and a reflection of both of you to my kids, grandkids and great grandkids. I am so thankful God has allowed me to live long enough to see all of them here on earth. I just pray I leave a path for them to follow me to Heaven. But I still miss you both so very much and I love you.

Love and Happy Valentine's Day

THE TRUE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

Dad,

Its Christmas all around us once again this year. It's just so hard to believe you and Mom both are not here to celebrate with us for the 3rd and 4th year now.

We only got to spend one more Christmas with you after Mom left this earth for Heaven. I felt in my heart you would not let her be gone to long before you joined her because you where always by her side.

After our Thanksgiving meal the whole family went to Comstock Park by the river in Adrian to put up a tree in both of your memories. We decorated the lights all in white this year and I hand made ornaments, each family had their photo and name framed inside. There where 60 family ornaments hanging on the tree from you and Mom down. Then we filled in with red trucks in your memory and birds in Mom's memory and of course your grandson David put the red bells on the top. There where 40 of us decorating the tree. We had hot chocolate and marshmallow treats at the park for all of us.

I can remember your last Christmas prayer over the family. Praying for God to keep us all in his care and thankful he knew Mom was with you. You participated with all the games the family played and laughed cheerfully at the goof offs in the family. You hugged every one of the little ones tight as if you knew it would be the last time and I somehow feel like you did know that it would be. You definitely ate your share of food. I remember when I was getting the house decorated for Christmas how you helped me as much as you could and was so excited to have the family home for Christmas. You kept asking me if everything was ready and was everybody coming? What time would they be here?

I cherish the time I got to spend with you that Christmas. It was like being home when I was a child getting ready with you and Mom for Christmas. Back then we had the church play to get ready for. All of us kids participated with parts in the play and also learning a piece to say. Christmas music was a must. It was solidly put in our minds why we celebrate Christmas. I recall setting a day aside to go to Grandpa and Grandmas for Christmas. I always looked forward to when the box from Uncle Jimmy and Aunt Jo was opened there and had a little gift for everyone in the family including all of the kids. I still remember what some of my gifts were from them because I always thought that was so special.

I heard Jesus Christmas story read to me the night before Christmas. Then Dad you would tease us every year about waiting to open our presents until YOU got out of bed on Christmas morning. You would pretend that you had to sleep in because you were so-o-o tired. That's OK Dad it has now become a gift to me to have that memory. I also remember that after the gifts were opened how you would set on the floor and play with us. While Mom took the pictures. I remember how one Christmas you were out of work and you and Mom did not have the money for presents so you and Mom sneaked our old toys out, you polished the boys toys and dressed the girls dolls with a new dress and tried to make them look new. I was the one who realized it first and said something. (What a brat I was) Years later Mom told me how it made her cry because I realized it. They felt so bad that's all they could afford. Back then there was no place to get a handout or any kind of help like there is today for people. All though I don't think You or Mom would have done that even if you could have. Seemed like it was always you helping others. Never the other way around. Maybe that's where I got it from because I enjoy giving to someone I know is in need more than my receiving.

After all isn't that the real Spirit Of The Christmas? Christ gave us this greatest gift he has and only ask for our love back. It really is so little he expects from us and yet he gives us so many gifts everyday. Thanks Dad for teaching me the true meaning of Christmas.

*Love you
Merry Christmas*

“ Happy Fathers Day GOD June 23,2024

Just what to tell you thank you for all you have done in my life. At the age of 71 you have allowed me to know 7 generations of my family personally. Starting with my Great Grand parents, grand parents, my parents, my generation, my children (2 sons and a daughter), my grand children 15), my great grand children (7). I have been so blessed to have strong fathers in my background. I know there are many on this earth who have never even met their fathers. How blessed to have this large family and to have your word, The word of God passed down thru all these generations. I pray Lord our circle will not be broken on that Heavenly shore. You have been there for us all. I hope I make you proud.

*Love Happy Fathers Day

“ June 23, 2024

Dad,

It has been another Fathers Day with out you here on earth. You have been here today only in my memory and I miss you so very much. I have been dealing with my own kids and the problems they have been having with their kids. I so much appreciate the many times you and I spent alone after Mom had passed on. Your gave me insight to life and how to handle problems as they came up in my life with strength and understanding. Little did I know then that I would be drawing the answers I needed now in my life from these conversations with you then. I have experienced the sadness of watching my own kids struggle with life now with their own families but you left me with the strength and knowledge I have needed to handle it. Oh I am sure some of the trials I have had to face in the 21st century are much different then your generation faced. The devil is making himself known and using every weapon he has it seems to wreak distress on the world and he is attacking the family to achieve his goal. But you left me with the answers and how to fight back. You where always a quite man and usually had nothing to say unless it had meaning behind it. You where a very patient man. And you loved very deeply. I often observed you setting quite with your head bowed in prayer and that is where I have found my answers to many of life's trials now. Thou my trials may be somewhat different then those you had to face in your time on earth. The answer to any of yours or mine trials is the same. PRAYER, God has always been there for you and Mom and he is still there for me and for my kids and yes my grand kids and my great grand kids. God was there answering prayers for Grandpa and Grandma and my great and great great grandma and grandpa. As I visited each of their graves and thought back over my life on Memorial Day this year. My thoughts took me back to memories of each generation before me and how it has been passed down to me the knowledge of life. God has been the one constant Father to us all. And I know that all my troubles I face today will be made alright in the end. Thank you Dad for the memories you left me with. Thank you and Mom both for showing me the path to take. I will do all I can to lead my children, on the right path. I will do my best to leave the same map for them and their children and their children's children and every generation to follow knows That they will know the path they must follow. God made you a wise man.

I could not have been given a greater gift from God then the Dad I have on Father's Day! You are still here with me guiding me all the way.

Love you Dad

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year,

Dad I just woke up from a dream that had memories of loved ones from my past that have passed on. I have my memories of you everyday. I so wish I could talk to you and hear your voice again but I know that will be waiting for me in Heaven. Your Christmas Cactus, "the one you bought for Mom" bloomed with red flowers right at Christmas in time for Mom's birthday. You told me how she always looked forward to seeing it bloom. I'm not a great planter, but I have been more diligent to watering and taking care of yours and Mom's plants since you told me how you used to work in a nursery tending to the flowers and plants. Also since you reviewed with me what each one of these plants in the house met to you and Mom. I'm doing my best. I'm trying to keep yours and Mom's memory fresh and alive each day. My whole family and Dawn, Bud and Alex all met to decorate the Christmas tree at the park in both of your memories this year. We decorated it in aqua blue and silver, the grand kids insisted on a silver star on top that lit up I think it was David who put it there. Then we put Mom's and your photo, with you both smiling back at us in front of it. This year it was right off the sidewalk over looking all the trees and the main big tree. It had green lights on the tree. It was a beautiful tree that did your memory justice. I look around at Christmas and see a precious memory of both of you everywhere. It's the one thing that keeps me going into a New Year ahead of me because I know you would have wanted me to go on. Through precious memories I love you Dad, I love you Mom.

Love Never dies,

Happy Thanksgiving

Dad

I can only imagine what Heaven's table looks like. This year we once again got the fixings for your favorite dish Whip Cream Salad ! I told Dan that was always a staple at our holiday meals just for you. This year was no different we had Whip Cream Salad in your memory on the table. Things are so different since you left for Heaven. The prices of things are almost unreachable now. That salad in 2020 cost $15.00 to make and now cost $28.00, but no matter we will always have it even if we have to do without the Turkey. I miss you so very much Dad. I still look at your empty chair setting where it always did and cry. I can still see you in it holding the dogs. Every thing is still in it's place just as you and Mom left it. I see no reason to change things as they bring back good memories for me daily. We got all the family and grandkids together for a nice Thanksgiving meal. We set up the garage just like you and Mom always did then afterward we went to the river and decorated a Christmas Tree in both of your memories. Dawn and Bud and Alex joined us there. We decorated it with aqua blue and silver this year with yours and Moms picture in front of it. It turned out very pretty and every person who walked by us commented on what a beautiful tribute it was. I decorated the front of the house with 6 deer and 2 sleds this year and the 1st snowfall just fell today. It looks so nice on the decorations. I put a silver cross with crystal humming birds on your graves on the 15th, the day Mom died. I know how you always wanted everything to look as nice as you could and I am doing the best I can to follow in your footsteps. We are not going to have the family all home at once this year for Christmas because I have a serious surgery Dec 1st on my legs and felt I should not try to plan anything for Christmas. We will be celebrating Jesus birth in our hearts that will not change. I miss you so much Dad but I know the time is very short when Jesus will be returning back to earth. The way this world looks today is discribed perfectly in the Bible and the end times. Grandpa often preached about it and told us exactly how it would be. I have read it for myself in God's word and now I am seeing it come true before my very eyes. Israel is at war and the USA is with them, the entire Middle East, Russia and many others are part of all this. We are killing our babies thru abortion and now even after they are born and the world thinks its OK. Men are marrying men and women are marrying women and our country has passed laws making all of this OK. The government is taking control away from the parents and teaching them the way they want to in the schools, the parents have no say. The Bible warned us that the generation that seen these first signs shall not pass away before the return of the Savior. I want to thank you and Mom for your loving examples to me in my life and I would like to say I am ready to go to Heaven when God calls me. So be looking for me when I walk into Heaven being lead by Jesus hand.

*The world looks upon me, as I travel along,
They say I have nothing, but they are so wrong.
In my heart I'm rejoicing, how I wish they could see,
Thank you Lord for your blessings on me.*

*There's a roof up above me ; I've a good place to sleep.
There's food on my table and shoes on my feet.
You gave me your love Lord and a fine family.
Thank you Lord for your blessings on me.*

*I know I'm not wealthy and my clothes are not new,
I don't have much money, but Lord I have you.
And to me , that's all that matters, though the world may not see,
Thank you Lord for your blessings on me.*

*There in Heaven, I'll walk the streets of gold and view the city grand.
I'll play the golden harp so sweet, and sing in that fair land,
He'll give me a robe and crown, and a mansion so fair,
I'll fall down before my Lord and praise Jesus there.*

Thank You Dad for showing me the way.

I'll see you soon.

*I Love You
Brenda*

“ JUNE 18, 2023 Father's Day

EXAMPLE OF A FATHER

Dad,

This is the second Father's Day on earth without you. I have just been thinking about you and Mom and all the memories I have of you. Every weekend you, Mom, Dan and I would do something together. and thru the week I would call you everyday or stop in to help you with things at the house or pull weeds out in the yard, paint the trim on the doors, bring a meal in to share with you both, anything you needed help with. I would not give one single memory away. I live with all of those memories now. I am so rich to have them. I will gladly share them, but I would not give even one away. They are mine and no one can take them away from me. Every second has become a precious moment in time for me. That don't mean I don't miss you both because I do.

Since God has you with him now and I know it is where you need to be. God had the grace to give me memories and photo's that flash across my mind of you and Mom that calms me thru another day. Someday I know I will see you there in Heaven with our Heavenly Father. The one who knew best when to take you home. I will keep on worshipping him as my Lord and Savior and this father's day I give him the Glory for making you my Dad. You have left me with a example of God's love, you taught me to forgive other's their transgressions toward me. With your gentle way you taught me how to serve the lord and you left me with a good family name. You shared that same kind of love to my children and on to the next generation my grandchildren and you lived to see even my great grandchildren. You effected this life directly for four generations and many more to come. I pray for each one of them daily and I pray the family circle will not be broken in Heaven. That you will meet each one of them one fine day.

If only the world had more father's like I had. They would feel the presents of God The Father with them. I pray everyday for this world to know that kind of peace. You may have been close to blind and close to no hearing but you did not let that stop you, you put your hand to many things and accomplished so much. At times you amazed me at what you did even though you had these handicaps. You where a hard worker at whatever you put your hands to. You where still mowing your own lawn and plowing the snow just before you left for Heaven. You did what you could while you where here and as your daughter I want you to know you should have no regrets, I am so proud of you. You loved the Lord and served God everyday. I don't know of any man you ever cheated. All your debts where paid. You did your best, at everything you did, that was the kind of example I had and that is the kind of example I want to be. You did not let anything stand in your way.

*Special people never leave us,
Even after they are gone.
They live in our hearts
FOREVER.
Nothing can ever break that bond.*

“ HAPPY BIRTHDAY and HAPPY EASTER

April 29, 2023

Dad,

I am late writing to you for your birthday this year but I at least made it in the same month. Life has been so busy and it is hard sometimes to get everything done I want to do. I know my time on this earth is short as well. You are on my mind everyday. Your memory will always be with me. I just wish I could have kept you and Mom here longer. I know even though I tried to be here for you after Mom left there where many lonely times for you. I seen the way you often sat with her picture right next to you and just sat in silence looking at it. I would leave you with your thoughts during those times because I did not want to impose on your memories. I know how you often longed for company other then me to come visit and sat in silence when no one showed up. My heart would break each time yours did. I know how you suffered thru it all. I love you Dad and I miss you so much No one knows the heart ace I feel losing you and Mom. She has been gone for almost 2 1/2 years now and you have already been gone for almost 1 1/2 years. but the wound is still fresh. I promise to respect and honor your memory to my children, grand children and now even my great grand children. We gathered here at yours and Mom's house for Easter. I had hoped for Jack, Gary and Dawn and their families as well. They where not here this year but maybe next year things will be different.

I have left everything in the house just as it was the day you left. Mom's photo book is still by your favorite chair. I hope to share all these memories of you and Mom with the entire family, so your memories will never fade. I will tell my children, grandchildren and great grandchildren about what great people you where and how much you cared for us all. Life just is not the same with you gone but I do have comfort in knowing you and Mom are both together once again.

I Love and Miss You So Much.

DAD,

It's been a year February 14, 2022 that you left us here below. I'm sorry I missed writing to you at Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years but I was very sick and in the hospital.

I never stop thinking about you for even a day.

There's a special kind of feeling when I think about you DAD.

It's a pleasure to remember, all the happy times we had.

There's a special kind of caring, that is meant for you alone.

There's a place somewhere in my heart that only you can own.

I know you are enjoying Heaven and I'll see you soon.

Missing you always,

Loving you always,

from that special place in my heart.

Proud to be your daughter.

Dad, I sure do miss you. It just didn't seem right going to watch the fireworks with out you this year. I hope you liked the sparklers I put on yours and Mom's grave. I want to keep every memory alive that I have of you. Life just is not the same without you to share these things with anymore. So I will hold on tight to my memories. Maybe someday the hurt will stop and the tears will go away. You were very special to me.

*I Love You

“ JUNE 19, 2022 HAPPY FATHER'S DAY INN HEAVEN

Dad I want to say Happy Fathers Day to you today but you are not here for me to share it with you. I feel you here with me and I remember how much you loved to hear from your children on special day's like today. I visited where you lay but I wish for more. I tried to spend all the time I could with you while you where still here and I would not take one moment back of that time spent with you. Happy Father's Day in Heaven this year Dad.

Today you would have been 91 years old. You were still so spunky and living life when you left us on Valentines Day. I still can't believe you are gone.

I see you riding next to me in the car. I see you across from the table eating your supper. I see you sitting across from me at the Big Boy or the Tip Top one of your favorite restaurants eating your breakfast. I see you riding your lawn mower enjoying the outdoors you loved so much and I see you in your chair with Tuffy and Suzzie sitting on either side of you on the arms of the chair with all three of you napping. Tuffy and Suzzie still sit there like as if you are there with them today. I miss spending the time with you on the back yard swing, enjoying the beautiful back yard and the Red Birds, Blue Birds, Yellow Birds and the Sparrows. The deer and all the wild life you so loved to watch visit your back yard. Drinking ice water after you had mowed the lawn. I miss setting with you thru out the day looking at old photo albums and just talking to you about how you feel today and whats on your mind. Taking a ride just to go get ice cream. In your case that strawberry milk shake.

Yes I see you everyday in my memories but it's just not the same. I miss you and Mom very much. I am having a hard time letting you both go. I know both of you are doing better than I am and enjoying Heaven with Jesus. I am doing my best to live my life on earth with only my memories of both of you now and I am doing all I know how to keep them alive. I know how much you missed Mom and I knew you could not stay apart for long. Mom needed you there with her to enjoy eternity together. I hope you enjoy the white and blue flowers I left for you and Mom. Mom I put butterflies in them for you. I wanted your graves to look nice for Easter and your Birthday.

Dan and I both are missing the weekends (which was practically every weekend) all four of us going out to eat somewhere, trying a different place to eat every weekend made it fun. Dan and I are still creating our memories here for now until we both meet you in the morning over there. Life is getting very hard to live here on earth. I can't imagine the Lord will tarry to much longer. We all have a lot to catch up on when we get there!

Happy Easter Birthday!!

Love You Always

Your Daughter

“ Dad,
It has been almost a month since you went to Heaven to be with Mom. You gave Mom the best Valentine gift of all----You. Even thou you left us, and God called you home, you will be missed.

The last 3 Sundays have been hard for me. For 42 years I called you and Mom every Sunday. My Sundays at 6pm leaves a hole in my heart.

I miss you so much. Like my daughter once said. " If Heaven had a phone I would call you".

I will see you in Heaven.

“ Uncle Sonny was a fine Christian gentleman. He was also an exceptional carpenter. Usually he was a very quiet man. But occasionally he could spin a story that would have you in stiches. May God bless the family. May you experience His presence and peace in this time of loss.
