“ *" With moon beams on their wings,
The Angels came for Mama in the night.*

*They took her softly in her sleep,
On her celestial heavenly flight.*

*Her pain now gone, her spirit free to soar
To meet our Savior, so sublime.*

*And now she can sow and lovingly tend
The Masters Garden, all the time."*

“ My dear sweet sister I will miss you so much. You have always made life so much fun. You were always sooo talented. Not only could you do wonders with flowers...cooking and baking...decorating just about anything...an animal whisperer I do believe...painting and so much more...but you also raised a beautiful and loving family. And everything with so much passion! And you always had an open door for anything living. Rest in peace. You truly deserve it.

“ Our condolences to the Mitchell Clan. Aunt Dottie will be missed by All. A Christmas gathering was at your home , late 70's I recall. Your Mom had a Birthday cake out in the spread. (How better to hit a nail on the head ?) In all Christmas activities I've attended, prior and past I've never seen such a Class Act. One of many things things I remember and will cherish. People so worry bout the pretty pie crust and putting all the "gimme stuff" under the tree, well she opened my eyes..RIP Aunt Dottie..

Yes Chris, I remember when I was young I would stay with your Aunt Dottie over Christmas and she would have a birthday cake for Baby Jesus.

“ You will be missed Gramma. You were always so vibrant and joyous and full of life. We’ve traveled together and had many great experiences and years together. From drinking champagne on the big ship, bidding at art auctions, to smoking cigars and seeing how fast we could make your little car go. I am so blessed that you were able to know my children and see them grow through their earliest years, and you always cherished my wife and treated her with respect. There is so many more memories with you, and I will cherish them forever. You’ve always been there, always encouraged me in everything I’ve done in life, and would never let me leave without your gentle reminder that “Jesus loves you, and so do I”. I’m so sad that you are gone, but relieved that you are no longer in pain and now get to sit at the feet of Jesus and be at peace. I hope they’ve saved you a big plot of land up there in heaven for you to grow your gardens on, as I know that was always your favorite pastime! We all love you, and always will Gramma.

“ When I was a little kid, Aunt Dottie talked my mom into letting me hang out with my cousins in the barn when we visited from the city. She taught me how to change diapers (thanks, Penny!), threw me a going away to college party, and continued to call me Barbie (I loved it!) for so many years after everyone else stopped. She will always hold a special place in my heart. R.I.P. Aunt Dottie. Please give Mom, Grandma and Grandpa hugs from me. ❤️🙏

This is sad news. I loved Dottie. She was my neighbor and 4-H leader when I was growing up. I rode the bus with Dawn, Bob and Denise. I have very fond childhood memories of going there. My friend lives in that house now and ai think of Chuck amd Dottie and the kids every time I go there. Dottie always had beautiful flowers and always welcomed anyone that came to her door. My heartfelt condolences to Dawn, Bob, Denise, Joy and Penny. And to all her grandchildren and friends that were fortunate enough to have her in their life. She left foot prints on my heart. Thanks for adding many happy memories to my childhood. RIP Dottie. Until we meet i. heaven. Kathy Pixley Lewis.
