

Douglas Wallace

August 9, 1950 - September 30, 2015

Blissfield—Douglas 'Doug' Wallace, 65, of Blissfield, passed away Wednesday, September 30, 2015, under the care of Ebeid Hospice in Sylvania, OH.

Born August 9, 1950, in Addison, MI, he was the son of the late Marland and Maureen (Hawkins) Wallace. Doug graduated from Onsted High School in 1968. Doug was an over the road truck driver, his latest job was with Davison Trucking.

On February 21, 1981, Doug married Darlene Manders at the Springville Methodist Church in Onsted. They celebrated 31 years of marriage before her death in 2012.

Growing up on a farm, Doug loved anything that dealt with tractors. He also enjoyed western movies, music of any kind, family barbeques, but especially spending time with his sons and their families. His granddaughter Ella held a special place in papa's heart. Doug greatly treasured his two trips to Ireland. Survivors include his sons, Jason and Kent (Amanda) Wallace, both of Blissfield; his siblings, a sister, Christina Cook of Grasslake, MI; his brothers, Stanley and David Wallace, both of Onsted; and granddaughter, Ella.

In addition to his wife, Darlene, he was preceded in death by his parents. Funeral services for Doug will be 11 a.m. on Saturday, October 3, 2015 at Wagley Funeral Home, Tagsold Chapel, Blissfield. Burial will follow at Pleasant View Cemetery. Visitation will be on Friday at the funeral home from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. and also on Saturday from 10 a.m. until the time of the service. Memorial contributions may be made to Ebeid Hospice, envelopes will be available at the funeral home. Online condolences and memories may be shared at www.WagleyFuneralHome.com

“Love doesn't die with death. Love is like liquid; when it pours out, it seeps into others' lives. Love changes form and shape. Love gets into everything. Death doesn't conquer all; love does. Love wins every single time. Love wins by lasting through death. Love wins by loving more, loving again, loving without fear.”
