“ So very sorry to hear of Liz's passing but I know she is in Gods loving hands. Liz was such a loving and giving person who I enjoyed knowing at the Salvation Army. She was good Soldier and Songster.##imported-begin##Joanie Kalaski King##imported-end##

“ To Robin, Jeff and Pam:

I didn't know your mother well but I want to extend my deepest sympathy in your loss. Robin, I recall your faithful leadership of the Sunbeams in Ypsilanti many years ago.

I pray that you will all find comfort in knowing where she is and that there is the hope that one day you will meet again! Her weakened body has now been replaced by a new one!

May God bless. I know His grace will be able to sustain you in the coming days.

Sincerely,

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I wish I could be there to hug all of you and whisper support and encouragements in your ear.

Know that all your memories will remain a treasure and better still, know that you have your own angel to work on your behalf.

You are in my prayers and in my tears. Wish I was there... but you should know that she is still there for you...always... just like before.

Your friend in need...
