

Ella J. Humphries

July 16, 1936 - February 20, 2016

ADRIAN – Ella “Jean” Humphries, age 79 of Adrian, passed away Saturday, February 20, 2016, at Lenawee Medical Care Facility.

She was born July 16, 1936, in Hodges, Alabama to James and Lillie (Lay) Chamblee.

On August 3, 1952, she was married to Hubert Humphries in Iuka, Mississippi, and he preceded her in death in 2007, having been blessed with 57 years together.

Jean was a member of the First Freewill Baptist Church where she was active in the Ladies Auxiliary and served as song leader and Sunday school teacher. She retired from Blissfield Manufacturing with 25 years of service.

Jean is survived by a son, Mike Humphries of Adrian; granddaughters, Mikayla and Molly Humphries; her cousin who was more like a sister, and also her caregiver, Mary (Gary) File; and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

In addition to her husband, parents and step-father, Elmer Ayers, she was preceded in death by a son, Mark Humphries, and sisters, Annie “Irene” Smith and Barbara Gann.

Visitation will take place Tuesday, February 23, 2016, starting at 10:00 a.m. at Wagley Funeral Home in Adrian until the funeral service at noon with Rev. Thomas Frantz officiating. Burial will follow at Palmyra Cemetery.

Contributions in memory of Jean may be made to Hospice of Lenawee. Online condolences and memories are welcome at www.WagleyFuneralHome.com.
