“ My earliest memory of Uncle Elmer goes back to Willow Run Airport. I was about five and my parents, Joseph and Anna Kovach, and I were picking him up on his return from the Army. He brought me a parasol and I have carried it around the world as I've moved. I still have it and its still beautiful. When I wrote to him last year and told him I still had it, he remembered it and we shared that memory. He will be missed. Niece Julia Cupitt
