“ My dear friend, Ethyl, was so kind. She was very sweet to my mother, she always said that she loved her. Ethyl's smile was so bright and beautiful, it would light up the whole room. I very much enjoyed our friendship. I loved to sit and visit with her. She was so grateful when I would bring her small things that she needed, or just something to help her feel good. She liked the perfumes, and lotion I chose for her. My heart is heavy, as I miss my friend very much. My heart goes out to her friends and family that I met, and those that I didn't meet. I know you all miss her, and loved her dearly. That was very evident during the time I spent with you for two days as we all comforted her. God bless you ethyl, and may God bless your loved ones.
