“ My brother had a heart of gold. When my dad passed away in a tragic accident, he took us in to his home until my mom could cope with the loss of my dad. He worked hard to provide for his family; but if you stopped by while they were having a meal he always insisted you sit down and eat with them. I was a curious child growing up. I remember Eugene was visiting our house and I got into his car and ran it over the wood pile. I don't remember him being mad but I did get a talking to. Several years later I ran his motorcycle into the lilac bush. We laughed about it years later. He loved to bake and always made sure everyone tried his homemade bread, cinnamon rolls and old fashion sour milk cookies. He took over as a father figure when our dad and our mom passed. He was always just a phone call away. I will miss you brother with all my heart. I promise to make sure those great memories continue on until we meet again. Love ya, Becky
