Fay loved being active, whether it was camping with friends and family, playing volleyball or disco dancing in the 70's, she rose to the challenge. She had a competitive side that came out when she was playing board games or her favorite video games, she did not like to lose. Family gatherings meant the most to Fay as she cherished spending time with her family.

In addition to her husband, Lyle, she is survived by her sons, Dennis (Shauna Reitmeier) Jacobs of Crookston, Minnesota, and Michael (Terisa Hassall) Jacobs of Melbourne, Florida; 5 grandchildren, Little Freddie, Glen Adams, Krysstin Gunter, Doug (Audre) Jacobs and Duncan Jacobs; many wonderful great-grandchildren; and her sisters, Wilma Jean Leonard and Jane Lea

Miller. She was preceded in death by her parents and son, Fredrick Jacobs. Following Fay's wishes cremation will take place with no public services.
