“ To the Gerke family:

Your Mother was a wonderful and special lady. I was in her class trying to unravel the language of Spanish and God Bless her for her patience. After six weeks of stumbling around trying to learn the language she came to me and politely stressed that I don't believe this class is for you, my dear! And she was right, but she went beyond her job duties in such a loving way and I will always remember her for that. Rest now my dear teacher and friend, the angels are all smiling, you have left a beautiful legacy for your loved ones here and for your students.##imported-begin##Janet (Durig) DeCesare##imported-end##
