“ *Growing up in Adrian, with an amazing group of friends, was a cherished and idyllic time. Gail was always a warmly welcomed addition to any gathering....her quick intelligence, quirky sense of humor and ready sense of fun insured laughter for everyone. She was a trusted friend, and loved for being the completely honest, forthright human being we all loved. Her courage has been an inspiration to us all. Love and Godspeed Gail. “ Gail was her Uncle Dick's favorite...a person he always looked forward to seeing at family reunions. He admired her intelligence and courage and sense of humor. I am sure that she was welcomed into heaven with a hug from her loving uncle. Enjoy your new life, Gail.##imported-begin##Mary Steudle##imported-end##
