“ I have known Gary since we were just kid's. I think I was around 5 or 7 years old when my family & Gary's family went on a vacation together on upper MI. Our families went to the same farm organization (North Adrian Grange). We hung May Baskets on each other for a few years. So that's few memories of Gary . So Sorry to hear of his passing. Pray the Lord's comfort through this time!

“ Gary was a wonderful friend since we were neighbors as kids. He always had a kind word and never spoke unkindly of anyone. His quiet strength and good humor will be sorely missed. Rest in peace, my friend and enjoy your life in heaven. May God bless Carole and the family.

“ Ron and I want to extend our sincere sympathy. Gary was a great friend for many years to us. Ron especially enjoyed their close friendship during their high school years together and special events after that. Gary always had a wonderful sense of humor and kindness. He always had a great smile and extended a welcome hand whenever it was needed. His many years of service to his church, family, and friends will always be remembered and treasured.
