“ Dear Darlene:

Please accept our sincerest sympathy regarding the loss of your mother. During earlier days at Twin Palms, our relationship with your parents involved brief conversations during one of their walks. However in recent years, Rosemary has come to know your mother and father more as good friends – from time to time, dropping by to visit with them during one her daily walks. Cherished memories from these visits will endure - it was both pleasure and privilege to have experienced the down to earth sincerity of this warm and caring couple.

Happily and hopefully we will be able to continue these chats with your Dad. Please extend our sincerest condolences to Darwin, to Linda, to Max and other members of your family. Our thoughts and prayers will be with each of you.

Best regards,
