“ My heartfelt condolences go to Bridget and the Cook family. I'm saddened by the passing of Greg so suddenly and unexpectedly. As I worked with Greg at Foresight Group it didn't take long for me to realize Greg was a truly nice person who really cared about his job and interacting well with his coworkers and our customers. Ironically, some of Greg's biggest fans were employees at the University of Michigan Health System Gifts of Art program where he enjoyed delivering very popular coloring books that were distributed to hospital patients and their families. When I told them of Greg's passing they were very sad to hear the news but were happy to tell me about the fun they had with him whenever he came by. I recently ordered and gave Greg 3 engraved pens with his name inscribed. Then a duplicate order arrived...so he could keep 3 at work and take 3 home. It was just a little gesture on my part but he was truly appreciative. I've retained 2 of them and they'll serve as a nice reminder of the short but meaningful period of time we got to be friends. And Go Green!
