“ *Our sincere condolences to all your family. What an expiring celebration of Harold's life!
We will all miss his happy smile, I've never seen Harold without one! He enjoyed a joke and playing a joke on someone, even from little. My mother told me a story about when she was working with our Grandmother Beagle in the peach orchard behind grandma's house on Jipson Street. Mom was working and every once in a while she felt something hit her in the back, but when she turned around never could see where or what was doing that. THEN she found Harold and Howard up in the trees slinging green peaches on the end of a twig! She always loved those boys, but that day I think they were in the dog house! I'm sure Mom welcomed Harold into his heavenly home with open arms! May you rest in peace until we all see you again!*
