“ My sympathy to all of the Peshke family.
A wonderful woman, caring mother and I loved to hear her laugh!
She was there for me many times as a friend and a Mom.
Had the pleasure eight years ago of running into her at Wendy's with her grand-daughter. She recognized me and came over to say Hello.

Thanks for sharing her, my love to all your family.

“ Susie, Sally, David, Danny, Rob, and Jan my condolences. Your mother was an amazing women with enough energy to light the world and she did. I have fond memories of our Stockford days and our parents friendship which was so cherished. I remember when you moved to your house on Maumee and Jet came back to the house on Stockford my mom called Helen. Helen told my mom to put the phone to Jet's ear. Helen whistled and told Jet to get home and he did! Love and comfort to you all.

“ She was my Aunt Tiny, many times more like a mom. My Aunt Tiny was gracious, caring, compassionate, attentive, an organized organizer, a hard worker, a cheerleader, a good cook, an example of an amazing mom, my role model, and a special woman who loved and lived for her family. She may be gone, but never to be forgotten.
