“ My grandma was my best freind and hero and my rock. She never turned her back on me and lord know I gave her a good many time so many things to turn her back and wash her hands of me but she didn't and because of that I'm the person I'm today because of Grandpa and Grandma. I was so blessed to have her as my grandmother and I'll miss her so much. She would tell poeple that I gave her all of her gray hair (lol) and I probabiy did. One of the last things she said to me was that she has always loved me and I told her that I have always loved her too and always will. My heart is breaking knowing that I'll not be able to see her again for awaile, but I know that your in a better place and with grandpa and other family and friends.

your brat*
