“ I had the pleasure of knowing Herb and being around him for decades now, and I was always impressed with how hard of a worker he was, how willing he was to support his family and friends and be positive and cheerful through it all. He was a fairly quiet man, but exceptionally caring. My parents felt as close to him as I did, and he was so kind to open his house in Florida to us when we were down there. He could make me laugh and also laughed generously himself when things were funny. He was just fun to be around. I'll miss him as will so many other people whose lives he touched.
