“ I am so sorry for your loss. 🙏 I have known Mrs. Zehner since I worked with her at Kline's in sportswear dept way back in the 1960's . She was the nicest person. 💜 Linda(McCarty) Nine

“ Mrs. Zehner was a special neighbor and church friend. Her faithful love of family was visible to us all. She and Wendell took such pride in their yard/home. I'm so glad I got to see her this spring as we had a nice chat. We keep you all in our hearts.

I'm so sorry for the loss of your mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, friend. I have known Irene and Wendell for years as they lived across the street from my mom and step-father, Floyd and Lucy Smith on Canterbury. Irene was the nicest person you could know and a very classy woman. I haven't seen Irene the past few years and I regret that. My parent passed away quite a few years ago and often wondered where Irene was living. Prayers for your family, Judy Rose.
