

James G. Wilson

January 1, 1944 - May 17, 2021

BLISSFIELD – James G. Wilson, 77, of Blissfield died early Monday morning at ProMedica Charles and Virginia Hickman Hospital in Adrian following a lengthy illness.

Born January 1, 1944 in Adrian, he was the son of Leroy and Dorothy (Kleindinest) Wilson. Jim was a proud graduate of Blissfield high school. He was a hard worker throughout life. He retired from Meijer.

On November 11, 1977, he married Joyce Brieschke in Blissfield. She survives to cherish over 43 years of memories.

Jim was a member of St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church in Blissfield. In his spare time, he enjoyed hunting, fishing, and old movies, especially Westerns starring John Wayne and Clint Eastwood. In his younger years, Jim enjoyed time at the Sportsman Club.

In addition to his beloved wife, Joyce, he is survived by his daughter, Jalinda Callahan of Blissfield; son-in-law, Norman Ellis of Perrysburg, OH; three grandchildren, Ashley (Jason) Purdy, Arianna (Josh) Gwinner, and Robert Ellis; 2 great-grandchildren, Aurora Purdy and Aidynn Gwinner; aunt, Janis Miller; uncle, Glenn Kleindinest; cousin, Randy Henricks; and his faithful companion, his cat, Sassy.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents; and his daughter, Janel Ellis.

Per Jim's request, cremation will take place. A private family graveside service will be held at Pleasant View Cemetery in Blissfield, with Jim's brother-in-law, Pastor Maurice Walworth, officiating.

Wagley Funeral Home, Tagsold Chapel, Blissfield has been entrusted with arrangements, where online memories and condolences may be shared at www.WagleyFuneralHomes.com.

“ When I first met Jim I had to look up (because to me he was very tall and I never mind that). Through the years I continued to look up to him. He always made sure everyone felt part of the group. You could count on Jim to break the ice if conversations become chilly and lonely. Jim you will be missed. God Bless his family and friends.
