“ In the Tecumseh Community Center in 1972 I asked a group of moms if there was a co-op nursery school in the area. A couple said they wished there was but "No, just a for-profit daycare". Jane was instrumental in organizing our small group to complete the complicated task of founding the Little Indian Preschool in Tecumseh. It was definitely worth the effort the next year, 52 yrs ago, as we took turns serving as teacher assistants watching our children learn and socialize. We made a wish and Jane's God given skills helped it happen.

“ When we lived in Richmond, Jane was a friend and fellow Girl Scout. She loved being at the Richmond Library which was just down the street from her house. In fact, her love of the library helped get me reading. Thank you Janie. Judy Herman Opacki

“ My dear “aunt Jane” has been was a wonderful light in my life, and those of my wife, Vivian and daughter, Zoë. She encouraged time with my cousins, which meant a lot to me as an only child. I always felt welcomed in the Clark home. Jane showed genuine interest in those she met, always supportive and encouraging. She did so much to help so many. The world is truly a better place for Jane having been in it.
