“ *Our condolences Dick and the Ream family. We were saddened to learn of her death and it was our honor to know Jane for many years in her service to the Adrian church. She was a dedicated and loving person to the congregation. She exemplified Christ's love for people by her work in the positions she filled. Our prayer is that the good memories you have of her will fill the void in your lives that will be felt from time to time.
Blessings on each of you.
