Please know your families are in our prayers. I still have many great memories of your mom, as well as all of you. As you all know God sends us angels and messages when we need them the most. I have to share this from the service tonight at "The Chapel" in Sandusky. The topic was "What's life, without a little HOPE". You were on my mind the entire time, thinking "wow this is so timely." This was the main quote, and one we plan to print and frame ourselves,

*"You'll get through this,
It won't be painless,
It won't be quick.
But God will use this mess for good.
Don't be foolish or naive,
But don't despair either.
With God's help, you'll get through this."*

I can't know your pain but I hope this note can put comfort in your hearts. Barb and I welcome any of you to call or visit if you get back to town. bouytom@gmail.com

“ Tami, Kim and Family
What a journey this has been for you all! While I am so very sad for your loss, I want you to know that the humble, gentle and loving spirit of your mother lives on in each of you. I can't imagine the loss that you are feeling and pray that God lifts you all up on wings like eagles and supports you with the love, care and concern of friends and family at this difficult time.

I will always recall Jan as a humble and giving servant of the Lord who did an amazing job of raising 4 wonderful daughters. Of course, my greatest (and last) memory of her will be her coming to our rescue on one of our last 20 mile training walks with lunch and cold drinks and the luxury of resting in her car before we made the turn for the last 10 miles. I am relieved that Jan has "made the turn" for home and is resting and rejoicing in the peace and love of Jesus embrace. What an awesome victory!!

Love you all! Lisa Christy Nartker
