“ Jeanette, or Grandma as we called her at dialysis, sat next to my mother. She was so sweet and always smiling. I looked forward to seeing her every day. She automatically made me smile. She wore colorful hats and gloves all the time and we just loved seeing them. Sometimes after we would sit in the lobby and talk about different spiritual leaders and religion. I will truly miss her. My heart is heavy. I know that God is smiling because he has another smiling angel with him in Heaven. Rest in peace Grandma. And may God Bless her family and friends as they mourn this wonderful woman.
