“ I am so sorry to learn of Jennie's death. I do know she would not have been happy to continue on without Lester and she will be greatly missed at the beauty shop on Friday mornings. Jennie had a quick wit and could be very entertaining. Her favorite saying was, as she glared at me over her glasses, "well good night nurse" and then she would laugh til tears came down her cheeks. She will be missed by everyone at the shop including the other clients. They have asked about her every week since the accident. I tried to return the call that was left at the shop on friday, November 27th, but was unable to reach anyone. But I do thank you for calling to let know Jennie would not be coming in.

Sincerely,
Carole Helzer from Headliners Hair Studio##imported-begin##Carole Helzer##imported-end##
