“ I moved away when I was 25, and I’m just now seeing this. 💔 He was my closest confidante at one time. I absolutely adored him. We lost touch, but I did get to talk with him once after I left. I’m so very, very sorry to see this. My deepest condolences to his family.

“ My deepest condolences go out to all of Jerrys family. As you all know Jerry was a great friend. My fondest memory of all was the huge smile on his face as he stood in the woods over his opening day buck, year after year. (This after I just hunted 45 days during bow season).
