“ Jody was a great and valuable friend of mine if not the Best, then one of the best I've ever had. I could write a book about all of the things we did together. The thing about Jody that I will always remember the best was his infectious laughter. He loved to laugh and when he laughed you couldn't help but laugh too. I am sorry that my friend is gone, but happy that is no longer suffering. I know he went through much pain, but I can still hear him laughing. Godspeed Jody, I loved you like a brother from the day we met. I will never forget you. Forgive me my Brother, and I will try to forgive myself. Pat Burke (The Wizard.)

“ Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush
Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I do not die.

“ I found out this news just this morning. I will always have his memories but regret not keeping in touch more. My thoughts and prayers go out to all his family and friends, I always looked up to him as a tough S.O.B with the heart of a kid. I will carry on that family tradition now. RIP Uncle, tell Dad, Grandma, Grandpa and Uncle Dick to leave the light on for me!

“ Goodbye old friend. Jody has been my friend for as far back as I can remember. We often disagreed, argued and at times couldn't stand each other but ultimately we loved each other as brothers. His door was open to me. If there is a Heaven, Jody's Heaven will have deer hunting. I hope that Joe is sitting at the wood's edge on a frosty November morning. Waiting for that Buck of a lifetime to work its' way within range through the corn stubble. No worries, no pain, no constant struggle just to survive, only the crisp fresh bite of fall air and the patient anticipation of "Just a few more steps". I will miss you my Dear Friend.

“ Jody was a good dear friend, known him all my life, we grew up together and always kept up to date once in a while by phone or in person and got to spend some time with him when he was in St Joes, a while back. Loved him like a family member, but then again, I guess he was family, I seen a change in Jody the last few visits I had with him, I believe in my heart and soul he is in a much better place now and spending time with our Lord and Savior, I will miss him dearly, and smile everytime I think of him. RIP my Brother from another mother. Jeannie, my heart goes out to you and yours, anything I can do for you, let me know.
