*Sally and Sandy,
We would like to send our deepest condolences regarding the passing of your father. It is always difficult whenever a close member of our family passes, especially your father. But please take comfort in knowing your father is not "lost", do not let anyone refer to his passing as a loss. Your father is alive and well and sitting next to God. He is free from all the needs and wants of his life on earth. He is happy! I wish you both all the best and pray you will continue to live your lives to honor God and your father.
