“ Much love, prayers and my deepest condolences. My son loved Jordan and thought very highly of him. He said he was just the nicest guy and was such a great person. He was always laughing when he talked about him. When I picked him up from school one day we saw Jordan outside and he yelled "Fussman! God I love that kid!!" Trey loved playing "Herrick Ball" with him and he ate lunch with him at Taco Bell on Tuesday. He will forever cherish Jordan in his heart and he will carry special memories of him forever. Your son was a beautiful young man. I am so very, very sorry. I hope the love that everyone is sending your way and all thoughts and prayers will comfort you. I know my son will celebrate the gift of Jordan's life and hold dear the memories he made with him.
